Mission Statement

The mission of Whitinsville Christian School (WCS) is to nurture the academic, spiritual, personal, social, creative and physical development of students, in cooperation with their parents, for Christ-like service in God's world.

Fine Arts at WCS

At WCS, students of all ages are given numerous opportunities to nurture their God-given creative gifts through fine arts courses, drama, choir, band, orchestra, and more. Across every discipline, students are encouraged to use their talents to glorify God while developing their skills and striving for excellence in their craft.

FINE ARTS ENDORSEMENT

The Fine Arts Endorsement on a WCS High School diploma highlights a student's dedication and achievement in the arts. This prestigious distinction showcases creativity, commitment, and passion – helping students stand out in the college application process.

PARTICIPATION

- Earn a minimum of a 3.0 GPA in 6 Fine Arts courses (more than 20 to choose from)
- Participate in at least 5 Fine Arts-related extra-curricular activities (inside or outside of WCS)
- Complete a senior year performance or showcase

E-PORTFOLIO

The e-portfolio showcases work within the Fine Arts at WCS and includes a list of classes and performances, programs, photos, critiques, and reflections.
